at the Cleveland Browns Stadium
$159 per small business attendee

The fifth event of its kind in Cleveland, this unique small business contracting event will present a great opportunity for small businesses to gain access to buyers that represent millions of dollars in purchasing. The goal of the event is to create future contracting opportunities for your small business through 15 minute one-on-one meetings between major purchasing organizations and small businesses. Appointments are made by a computerized matching of your business capabilities with a large organization's needs. There will be ample time between set appointments to partake in education workshops and to network with your peers.

Registration is on a first come first served basis, so visit <http://www.clevelandb2bmatchmaker.com/bmp/> to reserve your spot!
